PECULIAR CASE. The Mystery Surrounding the Suicide of Helen Hirshbock.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10th.—Helen Hirshbock, a rather handsome young German woman was found dead yesterday morning in her room at 426 Hayes street. All the crevices about the door and windows were stuffed with tissue paper, and the gas jet was turned on full head. It is supposed that some unfortunate love affair caused her to take her own life. Two of her most intimate friends say they know the cause of her suicide, but refuse to talk about the matter until after the funeral.

Coroner Katon held an inquest to day in the case, but nothing new was elicited. Mrs. M. Harman, the landlady of the house where Miss Hirshbock lived, declined to answer any questions concerning the causes leading to the suicide.

She schnowledged that she had been taken. Helen Hirshbock.

tions concerning the causes leading to the suicide.

She acknowledged that she had been taken into her roomer's confidence, but declined to make any statement which would throw light on the mystery.

Mrs. Wiggin, another confidante of the deceased, also proved to be a very reluctant witness. She testified that Miss Hirshbock had told her of the causes which might lead her to commit suicide. What these causes were Mrs. Wiggin would not tell.

Coroner Katon closely questioned both these witnesses, as also did the jurors, but they failed to make them reveal anything which might dissel the mystery surrounding the suicide.

The jury returned a verdict finding that the deceased came to her death from gas poisoning, but the cause of the suicide was not ascertained.

PORTLAND ITEMS. Shrewd Real Estate Agent-Alleged Case

Shrewd Real Estate Agent—Alleged Case of Murder.

PORTLAND (Or.), March 10th.—For the past few days the talk of the town has been the very sharp trick alleged to have been played upon C. A. Alisky by a real estate dealer who mulcted the former out of $5,000.

The story goes that Alisky desired to dispose of his Third and Morrison street property for $175,000, and bonded the same to the real estate dealer. Several days thereafter a man, claiming to hail from Montana, called on Alisky and offered him $200,000 for the property, and it is alleged deposited a forfeit of $500.

The real estate man holding the bond released it upon receipt of $5,000 from the owner of the property, but the climax to the affair so far is that the Moutana man has not since been seen.

W. S. Ladd, the banker, was the first to put his signature on the subscription to Hunt's railway. The amount of his subscription is $500,000.

The chemists who analyzed the stomach of George L Becker, who recently died suddenly, report finding sufficient arsenic therein to kill forty men. The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict that he came to his death by poison admi. istered by parties to them unknown.

The United Foundrymen's Association sent here for molders to fill the places of the strikers at San Francisco. They are meeting with very poor success.

Pickets Stationed in the Vicinity of the Foundry. San Francisco, March 10th.—The Executive Committee of the Union had all of the apprentice boys, who are also on a strike, before them yesterday. The object of the meeting was to make arrangements for paying the apprentices a weekly allowance while the strike lasts.

It was decided to pay those apprentices who were receiving $2 a day $7 per week, and $5 per week to those who received less salaries from their employers. The boys expressed themselves as being perfectly satisfied with the arrangement.

Drowned in a Slough.

Red Bluff, March 10th.—H. L. Taylor, a teacher in the Antelope district, attempted to come to town on Friday evening by wading the slough east of the Sacramento river. He was drowned in the attempt and the body was not discovered until this morning.

The deceased had no relatives here. He taught in Sacramento county last year, He was 30 years of age and a native of Maine. No information was given out about what teps the Union would take concerning the imortation of non-Union men from the East take the place of the strikers.

FRIGHTENED BURGLARS. Marysville.

MARYSVILLE, March 10th —Geo. F. Adams, a printer well known in Northern California and member of the Common Council of this city, light to day.

The joint Convention of Republicans and Democrats this evening nominated the following fusion ticket: J. U. Hoffstetter (Democrat), for Mayor; J. A. Maben (Republican), present incumbent, for Maishal; G. E. Smith (Democrat), present incumbent, for City Clerk and Assessor; Council—H. M. Harris (Republican), N. V. Nelson (Republican), David Condon (Democrat), J. Peffer (Democrat); George R. Eckart (Republican) for City Treasurer; school Commissioners—F. H. Greeiy and A. C. Irwin (Republicans), present incumbents, J. H. Flint (Democrat). This united action of the two political parties was brought about by the movement begun some weeks ago for a non-partisan or third-party ticket. A meeting of the non-partisans is called for to-morrow evening, when the propriety and expediency of putting another ticket in the field will be considered.

A Clitizen special from Deming says that Jack Kyle, a reliable old timer, has just arrived from Carreas, Mexico, with the news that a posse of Mexicans, under the direction of the "President" of the town of Bavispi, Sonora, overtook and had a fight with a renegade band of Apaches in the Espuellas mountains, some twenty-five or thirty miles south of the boundary line, and killed one and had one Mexican slightly wounded and one killed, being shot in the head. The Indians had a large band of horses in their possession at the time. The battle was fought on the 4th inst.

Death of a Territorial Pioneer-An Argonaut of 1846. SANTA ROSA, March 10th.—F. G. Blume, for many years Postmaster and Justice of the Peace at Freestone, Sonoma county, died at Freestone Saturday, at the age of 75 years. Justice Blume was born in Saxony, educated in the Royal College at Dresden for a physician, and sailed on a whaling ship in 1840—In 1846 he opened one of the first stores in Old Sonoma, where he resided for two years.

the first stores in Old Sonoma, where he resided for two years.

In 1848 he removed to Freestone and was elected to the first Territorial Legislature in 1849. He was appointed Postmaster in 1870. Deceased was highly respected. He was once the owner of large tracts of land, but died a poor man.

The weather is still cold and slightly cloudy to day, but the indications are for good clear.

DESPERADO PUNISHED.

Three Cases

VISALIA, March 10th.—Superior Judge Cross this morning pronounced sentence on Jim McKinney on three convictions. For injuring the County Jail and escaping therefrom McKinney get five years in the penitentiary; for assault with a deadly wespon on Lee Wren, two years in the penitentiary, and for an assault upon Tap Carter, three months in the County Jail and Soft fine. Judge Cross explained that in imposing the extreme penalty in all three cases he felt justified, as he could find no extenuating circumstance on the part of the criminal. People are well pleased at the decision of the Court.

land, Onlo, with another wife and three children.

It is related that he became enamored of the woman who he had just left, and in order to free himself from his first wife proposed a trip to Paris. At New York he found it necessary to remain, but sent his wife and family on to Paris. In their absence he secured a divorce. He then married the second wife and assumed his mother's maiden name of Gilbert, in order to avoid pursuit by his first wife.

He was lately recognized by a gentleman from Cleveland as Eurchard, and it is said that his former wife had been informed of his whereabouts and had made arra; gements to come to California, which caused Gilbert's sudden departure.

EVERYTHING QUIET.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10th.—Cora Bell, said to be an heiress, wanted to marry T. W. Smith, a real estate agent. Her brother objected, so this afternoon Smith and Miss Bell went on a tag outside the Heads and were married by the Captain. Result, the Captain made richer, the couple made happier, and the brother made fairs.
"What was the condition of affairs there when Spokane Falls (Wash), March 10th.—The case of Henry Baer, who shot and killed Hank McClossen, known as 'Big Mac,' will be taken up by the Grand Jury Thursday. Baer has many influential friends here, and a strong effort will be made to clear him on the ground of self-defense. The evidence, so fur as known, is strongly against him. Jackson, March 10th.—J. A. Garbarine was found drowned in Jackson creek, three miles east of here, yesterday morning. He left Saturday evening for home at Clinton, and stumbled over some brush in the trail. He was an Italian, 61 years, old, and was one of the most skillful mechanics in the county.

SAN RAFAEL, March 10th.—The body of a man, supposed to be a salior from the United States steamer Albatross, was found yesterday near Point San Fedro. The man wore a regulation navy suit and a pair of English walking shoes. The body was removed to the Morgue, where it now lies. She Has Entered Into a Contract With Augustin Daly. where it now ites.

Mrs. Woodworth's Disciples.

OAKLAND, March 10th.—The proprietor of the building in which the disciples of Mrs. Woodworth, under the leadership of Dr. Smith, with Bennett, the bicycle evangelist, and Rice, the boy preacher, have been meeting, has notified the company to vacate, as they have become a neighborhood nuisance.

A Missing Woman.

San Francisco March 10th.—Mrs. J. B. St. Dennis disappeared on Friday from ber home at 122 Perry street, and all efforts to find her have proved futile. Her children are being cared tor by the neighbors, as her husband is in the County Jail waiting trial for an assault with a deadly weapon.

That Coal-Oil Can.

Albuquesque (N. M.), March 10th.—Last night a boy named Willie Chambers attempted to light a fire by pouring coal oil on live coals in the stove. The can expedded, burning him severely and setting fire to the house, burning it and two small frame dwellings adjoining. Loss, $900.

Sacramento Methods Obtain in the Town of Biddeford.

Biddeford. (Me.), March 10th.—There was great excitement here over the municipal election to-day. One hundred special police and twenty-five Deputy Sheriffs were on duty. The votes of the men whose naturalization papers were issued by the Municipal Court in a leged violation of law were being challenged. Special officers were working in sympathy with the men. In one ward two Deputy Sheriffs arrested a challenged voter, but a special officer and a crowd liberated the prisoner.

In another ward Deputy United States Marshal stackpole drew a revolver when the crowd interfered with his arrest of a prisoner. Stackpole succeeded in holding his man, and also caused the arrest of a special officer who interfered.

RICHMOND (Va.), March 10th.—The monument to the memory of General Robert E. Lee, which will be unveiled here on May 20th, will stand sixty one feet and two inches above the ground. Of this hight the tase and pedestal will take thirty nine feet, and Mencie's equestrian statue of the horse and rider, in bronze, will make the remaining twenty-two feet and two inches.

The statue is designed to represent General Lee having reined in his horse, and in the act of overlooking a battle-field and receiving the greeting of his troops. The horse's head is down and turned slightly to the left; the left forefoot is advanced and the left hindfoot thrown back. The figure of Lee is erect and barcheaded, the head being turned very slightly to the left. The bridle hand is well up on the thigh, holding the General's hat. The monument stands on a site just at the western end of the city.

FEATS OF STRENGTH.

A Woman Who Can Lift Nearly Nine Times Her Own Weight. New York, March 10th.—The keepers of the Raymond-street jail and the Kings county penitentiary are teiling stories of the phenomenal feats of strength of one Mary Martin, a prisoner at the latter institution. She was arrested a few days ago for tearing down a wooden awning, by the use of her hends only, while intoxicated. Four officers were required to make the arrest.

In the police station she bent the iron cell-door bars with her hands, snapped in half the iron handouffs locked to h r wrists, unscrewed the rusted iron nuts from the locks by using her bended fingers as a monker-wrench and performed other remarkable feats. She is four feet nine inches in hight, weighs only ninety pounds, wears a No 2-shoe and a No. 5 glove. She says she can lift 8% pounds three feet from the ground and can hold a barrel of flour over her head with ease.

It Does Not Pay to Make the Acquaintance of Princes.

Dalsion (England), March 10th.—Fliza Anne Fitzhugh, a teacher of music, and her mother were charged before a Folice Justice in this place with obtaining property on false pretenses. In October, 1888, the manager of Professor Baldwin, who was at the time jumping from a balloon, asked Miss Fitzhugh to undertake the task of retting the Prince of Wales to attend one of Baldwin's exhibitions. He promised to give her £10 if she succeeded. Accordingly, Miss Fitzhugh got an appointment to meet sir Francis Knollysat Mariborough House, and there succeeded so well that the Prince, the Princes and their three daughters attended the show at Alexandria Palare. Miss Fitzhugh had the honor of singing before the princely family when they were there, also, but she never got the £10 promised to her. She had been at considerable expense for a dress and otherwise in this matter, and so got into debt.

It was then her troubles began. She tried to get an appointment as vocalist in the family of the Prince, and those who promised to heip her to the post told her rhe was sure to succeed, and even sent letters of congratulation on the certainty of her appointment.

In December, 1839, her father died. To provide for the funeral she went to an undertaker and told him she had been appointed to the post of vocalist in the family of the Prince, and he therefore trusted her for the price of a decent funeral. The bill was sent to Marib rough House. It happened that a Miss Fitzhugh was employed there in another capacity and she got the bill, so she made a fins about it.

Miss Fitzhugh, on being asked to explain, at once told the whole tory truthfully. The undertaker offered to lorgive her debt, but the Prince's household would not allow that. The magistrate held the prisoner for trial.

Spring Clothing.

Every day brings us installments of our stock of Men's Spring Clothing, there being now some FIFTY lines on our counters. Everything points to a great season for Plaids, and although our assortment shows some very dressy styles in Stripes and Broadwales, still the larger portion is just of the sort that particular men will want. Being all Easternmade goods, they can be relied upon, not only for superior workmanship, but for the latest style in cut and pattern.

What we have said for Men's stands equally good for Boys' and Children's Clothing. A better collection never came to town. Then, also, in Children's Waists, the assortment is double that of last season; and, what's better, the values are better.

The Shoe Sale.

Just now, in the Shoe Department, we are selling the Ladies', Men's and Boys' Shoes from the Steinman Bankrupt Stock. The goods are not only all new, but are much superior in style and appearance to the average Shoe stock. The opportunity that we offer to careful buyers is therefore an unusual one, especially when the sale prices and the goods are seen together. Our prices are from one-third to onehalf of those of Mr. Steinman, such marked reductions being made by us with the object of turning over the stock quickly.

> Those who have not yet obtained the advantages offered by these sales, are invited to call and examine the great values.

Eugene J. Gregory, the present Mayor, who will undoubtedly be re-elected to-day, was born in this city, and is 35 years old. He is the head of one of the most successful business houses in the city, and enjoys an enviable reputation throughout the on the first three there were mail cars. Board of Trade. His administration has ter point. been most satisfactory to the people, and he has accomplished much for the best interests of the city. During his incumbency of the office he has acquired a thorough knowledge of the city's needs, and is now better prepared than ever to accomplish good results. He has a manly ambition to mplete the good work he has begun, and d receive the hearty support of those $5,000, who have the public welfare at heart. His opponent, Mr. Comstock, is a worthy citizen, honest and reliable, but he does not possess the necessary qualifications for the office, especially at a time when municipal affairs are in such a complicated condition as at present.

The other Republican candidates are re-

IT'S ALL RIGHT. The Supplemental Register May Be Used

The case of Brannigan vs. E. J. Gregory and others, which was an application for a writ of injunction to prevent the issuance and usage of the supplemental register at to-day's election, came up for hearing before Superior Judge Armstrong yesterday. Add C. Hinkson appeared for the a few nights ago, and if he escapes the plaintiff, while Major W. A. Anderson. District Attorney E. Bruner and Assistant District Attorney, A. T. Bruner, represented ine defendant. The case was argued pro and con all day, and innumerable authorities were cited in support of each side.

The plaintiff contended that tax-payers had the right at any time to enjoin proceedings that tended to increase the burden of taxation; that the making-up of the supplemental register tended to increase the burden of taxation; that the issuance the burden of taxation; that the issuance who is on both takets for Free Library True. was illegal, and that the law did not provide for the payment of the printing of it. District Attorney Bruner replied that if the law did not provide for the payment of the printing of the register, the present intion proceedings were premature, as no bill had as yet been presented for the printing of it.

W. A. Anderson made the closing argument for the defense, and also contended argued that the proper time to apply for a will be made, illustrating the subject, and writ of injunction was when a demand was made upon the Treasury for the printing, be procured of members free. The lecture writ of injunction was when a demand was made upon the Treasury for the printing, at which time there would be room for ar-will begin at 8 o'clock sharp. gument as to whether or not the paying of the bill would constitute an increase of the burden of taxation.

The case was submitted to the Court late in the afternoon. Judge Armstrong decided promptly that he had no authority to prevent the use of the supplemental register at the polls. In regard to the payment of the printing bill, he could see no day night, cleaning up $70 in coin and a authority for that, either. Still, as there good watch. might be room for argument on this matter, he gave the attorneys five days in which to look it up and present it to him.

FREEMAN'S PARTNER. Was Wilke an Accessory to the Murder of Mark Feeley? In the accounts of the murder of Mark Feeley at Antelope recently by Chas. Freeman, the statement was made that "Freeman's own brother-in-law volunteered the information to the Assistant District Attorney that only recently Freeman told his (the brother-in-law's) wife that he intended made via Cheyenne, on the Burlington to put the cook out of the way."

J. A. Easton, the brother-in-law mentiened, was in town yesterday, and stated that it was Wilke, Freeman's partner, who said this to his (Easton's) wife instead of Freeman. It occurred several days prior to the murder, and Freeman and Wilke were Regulator. on a spree together. Mr. Easton drove up with his wife, and went into the store, leavwith his wife, and went into the store, leaving his wife in the vehicle. Wilke approached her, and putting his foot on one of the wheels, told her that he and Freeman had notified their employer, Mr. De Kay, that he must discharge the cook (the deceased). In conclusion he stated that if De Kay did not get rid of him, they—Freeman and himself—would put him out of the way.

The selection of Sheridan and Donohue as umpires for the League seems to give general satisfaction. The former came high, but they had to have him.

SENATOR STANFORD. He Would Have Uncle Sam Loan Money to Every Farmer.

Washington, March 19th.—Senator Stanford presented the following resolution in the Senate to-day:

Whereas, There is a ttringency in money money and much consequent distress, the genergies of the country being depressed, and large portions of farming communities being heavily burdened and struggling for relief; and whereas, the United states Government is alone authorized to make money, which shall be legal tender, whether it bertamped upon paper, silver or 'geld; and whereas, the value of these commodities, when used as money, depends entirely upon the stamp of the Government making it degal tender; and whereas, it has been found that money advanced by the Government upon its own bonds to holders thereof has furnished the best and most acceptable currency through which to-day in our country most of the exchanges are made; and whereas, the present stringency is largely due to the retirement of Government bonds, which have been so largely the basis of our circulating medium; and whereas, it is of great consequence to national and individual interests that credit should be established where merited, as far as it is safe-and practicable; and whereas, the Government can do this abundantly without risk to itself upon much of the property of the country, as it is now doing upon its own bonds ou which it is paying interest; and whereas, loans upon a property basis would furnish all the money needed without cost to the Government, and a fair rate of interest paid by the borrower would give to the Government cost of the Government, and a fair rate of interest paid by the borrower would give to the Government upon mortages deposited with it upon real estate, independent of improvements, at such rate and to such amount only as will make security to the Government, as a further restraint and provision against an over-issue, if such things be possible, upon perfect security where the interest is very slight, shall provide to call in such a percentage of its loans, from time to time, upon reasonable notice, as it may deem ne ASHINGTON, March 19th.—Senator Stanford ented the following resolution in the Senate

"From the earliest civilization there has ex-isted in all countries need of some commodity that will stand as the representative of values through which exchange can be made, without through which exchange can be made, without the commodities themseives being passed from hand to hand. In the process of time gold and silver came into use for this purpose—of equalizing exchange—and to-day, when stamped by responsible covernments. these metals have value as money far beyond any possible value they might have were they only used in the arts.

they might have were they only used in the arts.

"Money becomes valuable as it s'imulates industry and facilitates the exchange of the products of men's lakor.

"A Government bond is valuable to the holder on account of the interest it earns. As an energetic factor in the transactions of men it only amounts to the percentage which it draws, but when bondholders, by depositing with the Government, receive back 90 per cent, in Government bills, 90 per cent, lof its value becomes energized into an active commodity, giving employment to the energies of the country.

"In a like manner if a farmer were able to borrow from the Government without interest a certain amount of its coin, giving his farm as security, therefore to that extent his land would become an active force, and he would be enabled while giving employment to the extent of the money loaned him to improve his farm and increase its value to the full amount.

"Thus the Government loar would be doing a double duty. Now the activities of this money do not terminate with its expenditures by the farmer; those who have received it in their turn will make use of it, as an energizing factor in the forces of life to an indefinite period. As money employs labor, it brings to life a continuing force, labor begetting labor as certainly as its fruits are valuable.

"Another way by which we can appreciate what money actively used may perform in the Final action on the bill was postponed until Monday.

The following changes have been made in California Postmasters: T. W. Hill appointed at Big Pine, Inyo county, vice A. K. Engley, removed; T. O. Bailey, at Nellie, San Diego county, vice Nellie McQueen, resigned. BUREAU OF AGRICULTURE.

The report of the Department of Agriculture shows that the wheat in the farmers' hands is as follows: In six spring wheat States there are only 40,000,000 bushels, 18,000,00 of which is required for seed. Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas have only 60,000,000 bushels, of which 8,000 000 are needed at home, and part of the latter is commercially unavailable at present prices.

The percentage of corn in the hands of growers is 45.9 per cent., or 270,000,000 bushels, and of wheat 31 per cent., or 166,000,000. The stock of corn is the largest ever reported in March.

SENATOR STANFORD ENTERTAINS.

SENATOR STANFORD ENTERTAINS. Senator Leland Stanford gave a dinner to-night of fourteen covers, at which the decora-tions were of white and green. The guests were: General Miles, General Schoffeld, General Roch-ester, and Fenators Squire, Voorhees, Pasco, Pugh, Aldrich, Fawyer, Allison, McMillan, Speaker Reed and Justice Field.

CENSUS OF CITIES. The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin show-ng the cities and towns which, with the statis-ies of manufacturers, have been withdrawn rom the regular supervisors and sent to experts and special agents. Those on the coast are as ollows:
California, First District—San Francisco and san Jose. Second District—Oak and, Sacramento and Stockton. Third District—Marysville. Napa ity, Petaluma, Santa Rosa and Vallejo. Fourth District—Santa Cruz. Fifth District—Los An-

les. Nevada—Carson City and Virginia City. Oregon -Portland. Washington-Walla Walla and Seattle.

HERMANN ON HOPS.

The Wavs and Means Committee to-day heard further arguments upon the proposition to increase the duty on hops. Representative Hermann, of Oregon, denied the statement which had been made that the people of the Pacific slope did not desire to increase the duty on hops. Chinese labor was becoming very scarce and dear. Indians could no longer be had, land was increasing in value, and all these things meant an increased cost in the production of hops. At present the actual cost of growing them on the Pacific coast was from 8 to 10 cents a pound.

Representative Butterworth argued in opposition to the increase of duty. He affirmed his protection principles, but held that this was a case where an increase of duty did not mean added protection. New York State was in the position of Northern Chio, in that she was trying with worn-out lands, unsuited climatically, to compete with the fertile and productive West. One section of the country could not be protected against another by any such device as an increase of duty. HERMANN ON HOPS. an increase of duty.

DUTY ON COFFEE. Representative O'Donnell of Michigan intro-luced a bill in the House to-day providing for the collection of a duty on coffee equivalent to the export duty levied by certain countries. Coffee coming from those countries not exacting export duties shall be admitted free and when nations now collecting duties on coffee exported to the United States shall abolish the same no uty will be collected at any American port. TAULBEE CANNOT LIVE.

Mrs. Senator Dolph received informally this afternoon, but on Thursday evening Mrs. Dolph will be "at home." The Thursday reunions are among the pleasantest affairs given.

WORLD'S FAIR.

Commissioners to be Appointed from the Various States.

Washington, March 10th.—The special House Sub-Committee on the World's Fair held another conference with the visiting Chicago delegation to-day and completed the bill, which will be presented to the full committee as soon the Chairman can call it together.

A few changes were made in the provisions for a National Commission, which will be composed of two members from each State, nominated by the Governors and appointed by the President. This was retained, but an amendment was added providing that the Commissioners be divided equally between the two political parties, and that these Commissioners be divided equally between the two political parties, and that these Commissioners shall have entire control of the fair instead of the local incorporators.

It was also suggested that the President do not appoint Commissioners until the Chicago men have raised $5,000,000 and given satisfactory assurance of their ability to supply another $5,000,000 fineeded.

The Government Commissioners are to have control of the operation of the fair, the appointment of the juries, the distribution of awards, etc., but the Illinois corporation is to prepare the site for the construction of buildings and retain control of the financial affairs. Various States.

the proper authorities of the United States to pro-cure and release various restrictions, more or less, and would thereby add at least $50,000,000 to American exportations of beef products.

Bates remarked that several bills kindred to this one were pending before the Agricultural Committee; that it was a matter of vast im-portance; that the pending bill was a substitute for the original bill and had only been reported last week, and more time should be allowed for the consideration of the measure.

The discussion was further participated in by Allison, Plumb, Teller and Edmunds, when the hour of 2 o'clock arrived, when the bill was laid aside without action and the educational bill taken up. ll taken up. Higgins addressed the Senate in advocacy o Higgins addressed the Senate in advocacy of the bill, and Jones of Arkansas followed Higgins. He said the Legislature of his State had instructed her Senators to vote against the bill, and he should obey those instructions.

At the close of Jones' speech the Senate proceeded to vote on the amendments proposed by the committee, and they were severally agreed to.

The bill was then laid aside, and after an ex-cutive session the Senate adjourned. IN THE HOUSE. Washington, March 10th.—In the House today the senate resolution was concurred in providing for Senate and House Committees on Immigration to jointly investigate the workings of various laws of the United States and the several States relative to immigration.

The resolution was amended to direct the joint committee to investigate the effect on American workingmen likely to follow the purchass of American industries by foreign capitalists.

The floor was then accorded to the Committee in the District of Columbia.

The District business having been completed, he senate bil was passed for taking the census Alaska. The Senate bill was passed to prevent the in-oduction of contagious diseases from one State A bill was passed authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Columbia river between Oregon and Washington.

Lacy of lows, from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution for the appointment of a sub-committee to make a full and thorough investigation of the contested election case of Clayton versus Breckinridge.

Lacy (at the request of Breckinridge) offered an amendment directing the sub-committee to investigate at the events relating to the contest or arising therefrom after the election, which was agreed to, after some debate. The resolution was then adopted.

The House thea went into Committee of the Whole on the Oklahoma Territory bill, and without making much progress the committee rose and the House adjourned.
